

Kasper Juul, MBA

Kasper is part of LEO Innovation Lab, an independent digital innovation unit established by LEO Pharma. The unit focuses on innovating to help patients living with a skin condition. Kasper previously held a position at the iLab as Director of Projects and now as Head of LEO iLab, Canada, with a strategic and operational focus covering North America. Kasper holds a MSc in strategic Management and Finance. He has strong entrepreneurial experience, previously working within Venture Capital, large scale tech companies and startups.